Oh me! Oh life! of the questions of these recurring,
Of the endless trains of the faithless, of cities fill'd with the foolish,
Of myself forever reproaching myself, (for who more foolish than I, and who more faithless?)
Of eyes that vainly crave the light, of the objects mean, of the struggle ever renew'd,
Of the poor results of all, of the plodding and sordid crowds I see around me,
Of the empty and useless years of the rest, with the rest me intertwined,
The question, O me! so sad, recurring—What good amid these, O me, O life?

Answer.

That you are here—that life exists and identity,
That the powerful play goes on, and you may contribute a verse.
— WALT WHITMAN, "O ME! O LIFE!"

Help us honor and celebrate our high school graduates at the reception in the Fellowship Room immediately following today's service.

TO OUR GUESTS:

Thanks for joining us! We are honored to have you with us and invite you to make yourself at home. Here are a few things you might want to know:

- Our Guest Services desk in the Lobby is designed to help you get more information about Summitview. Stop in to ask a question, pick up a welcome brochure or fill out a guest card to let us know you're here!
- If you have children, you are welcome to keep them with you during the service or they can take part in one of our many amazing children's classes (Nursery–8th Grade). There is also a room for nursing mothers in the Nursery, where there is a live video feed of the message so you won't miss it (women only, please). Stop by Guest Services for more information or to register your child for Sunday classes.
