I Said, I'm Proud to Be a CSU Ram

Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.
— APOSTLE PAUL, Romans 15:7

Do you remember your first week of college? (You do remember that week, right?) The nerves. The excitement. The beginning of the rest of your life.

College is a big deal, but that first week is critical for students who are looking for a church home—or for meaning and direction in life. International students and the spiritually hungry are in our backyard. Our hospitality as individuals and as a church can have an eternal impact this week as new students arrive for the beginning of a new school year.

Here's how you can help welcome new and returning Rams and thereby bring glory to God:

1. Introduce yourself to students next Sunday and offer to take them to lunch
2. Pray for the staff and students in our college ministry, The Rock, that they would make connections and be bold with the gospel during move-in week
3. Consider giving to our Missions Fund (summitview.com/missions/city) so that we can continue to offer dorm scholarships for gospel-minded students

TO OUR GUESTS:

Thanks for joining us! We are honored to have you with us and invite you to make yourself at home. Here are a few things you might want to know:

- Our Guest Services desk in the Lobby is designed to help you get more information about Summitview. Stop in to ask a question, pick up a welcome brochure or fill out a guest card to let us know you're here!
- If you have children, you are welcome to keep them with you during the service or they can take part in one of our many amazing children's classes (Nursery–Pre-K). There is also a room for nursing mothers in the Nursery, where there is a live video feed of the message so you won't miss it (women only, please). Stop by Guest Services for more information or to register your child for Sunday classes.
