Your Marriage Can Flourish

Let's be honest. Marriage is hard, and couples can often find it difficult to connect. Summitview's Marriage Skills class helps spouses learn how to empathize with each other and meet each other's emotional needs, which results in deeper intimacy and healthy, flourishing marriages.

This class is comprised of a two-hour overview session, three small group gatherings and an intensive all-day retreat. This class requires regular time for you and your spouse to work through assignments and activities together.
