POLITICS AND MY OWN HEART

Discussion Questions

1. What aspect of politics evokes the greatest emotions in you? What is the dominant emotion you most often feel? (anger, fear, despair, hatred, disappointment, exhaustion, etc.)
2. Which of the truths mentioned today produced the greatest degree of peace in your heart? Why?
3. What did you think about the biblical roles of government, and our “rights” as Christians? And how does that still mesh with seeking better laws and governmental reform?
4. How does God emotionally react to all our politics? Can we adopt the same emotions as him? If so, how will you strive to grow in aligning your emotions with his this week?
