Discussion Questions

1. Where are you currently on the spectrum between following the government's health mandates vs. gathering together as churches?
2. Did your group get heated when discussing question 1? Did you disagree? If you had the same conversation with an unbelieving neighbor or co-worker, would they disagree with you?
3. In all honesty, are your politics evaluated through the filter of your faith, or do you create a version of faith that supports your politics?
4. Read John 17:20–23, where Jesus prays for us. What stands out to you? How would you define “unity”? According to Jesus’s prayer, why is unity so important?
5. What are some steps you need to take when it comes to politics and moving toward unity in the Church?
