HOLY RETALIATION

Discussion Questions

1. What are some of your first reactions to the violence in this Psalm? Take some time to discuss your perceptions of how our society deals with anger.
2. When you are angry, do you tend to wear it on your sleeve, or keep it inside? What types of reasons could anger be righteous and not sinful? Why might it be wrong to NOT get angry in a circumstance?
3. Because of the cross, we can do something the Psalmist didn't have access to. What is that? How do we do it?
4. What are practical ways we as the church can help each other love justice while simultaneously forgiving and loving the people who have mistreated us?
