Sin, Sensitivity and Scripture Discussion Questions

1. When have you lacked sensitivity to a particular sin, and only realized later that it was much more serious than you previously thought?
2. When have you been able to see the danger of sin and draw a line in such a way that you likely spared yourself and others from a lot of pain?
3. Consider each category of Ezra's example of devotion to the Word: study, obedience and teaching. What are some practical ways that you might grow in each during this unique season?
