

FOLLOWING YONDER STAR

Discussion Questions

1. What images of the wise men have you typically had in your mind? After examining their story, is there anything that freshly stands out to you about their journey?
2. Think about the times when you can be turned quickly to anger or fear. What types of comments or situations tend to trigger those emotions in you? What does your answer reveal about where you can place your hope?
3. In your own words, describe what all contributed to the great joy of the wise men.
4. What do you notice about God's activity in this story, not only with the wise men, but also with Joseph and Mary? Describe how each character in the story must have viewed God.
5. As you look forward to the Advent season, in what practical ways might you attempt to transfer your hope from the temporal to eternal?