The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

9 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’”) 16 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.

Mark 1:14

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God...

The Book of John

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, full of grace and truth, which came into the world, and we have seen his glory, like that of the only Son from the Father, who is full of grace and truth. This one is of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks lower than I, because he was before me.'
"I have written these things to you, that you may know that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in the name of the Son of God who came into the world in flesh and blood, who is the Father's only Son, who has made him known."

And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the inland country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. ² And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" 1 Corinthians 12:18-20

¹⁸ But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. ¹⁹ If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰ As it is, there are many parts, yet one body.

Be the Architect of Your Own DESTINY

Most of us are raised to fit in and be part of the status quo. As a result, we end up attributing our accomplishments to the people we were pretending to be, instead of the magnificent women we really are. Sure, we're honest, trustworthy, and benevolent... but are we authentic?

I dare you, right here and right now, to strip yourself down to the real you and be authentic. Be willing to sacrifice who you are for who you could become. Imagine the freedom of going through your day being unapologetically yourself, marching to your very own beat, while letting go of the baggage you thought was necessary to your life. Embrace the idea that the only person you are destined to become is the person you truly are inside. Be the architect of your own destiny.

As you embrace your authentic self, your confidence and self-worth will soar. You will have the courage to stand a little taller and reach a little further than ever before. And your example will encourage others to do the same. Go ahead. Give it a try! I dare you.
