“If You Believe”

John 11:40-57

The Purpose of This Book

“Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.”

The Purpose of This Book

“Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.”

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 3 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 4 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

5 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 6 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 7 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

8 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 9 He was in the world, and the world did not know him. 10 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 11 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, 12 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

13 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 14 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’”) 15 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 16 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 17 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.

John 11:41-42

So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent me."

John 11:41-42

John 11:43

When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out."

The Book of John
The purpose of this book is to show that Jesus is the Son of God, and that he has the power to give life to those who believe in him. This book is written for those who have not yet believed, and for those who have already believed, so that they may continue to believe in Jesus the Son of God.

The Book of John

John 11:44

The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

The Purpose of This Book
The purpose of this book is to show that Jesus is the Son of God, and that he has come to save the world. This book is written for those who believe in Jesus and want to know more about him.

The Book of John
The book of John is the fourth of the four Gospels. It is written by the apostle John, who was one of Jesus' closest friends. The book is unique in that it is the only one that was written after Jesus' death. It focuses on Jesus' teachings and his identity as the Son of God.

1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.

John 11:45-46

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him, but some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the world, and the world saw him, but they did not recognize him, because he had come to his own people. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him.

1:2 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him.

1:3 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him.

John 11:47-48

So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the council and said, "What are we to do? For this man performs many signs. If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

John 11:51-52

He did not say this of his own accord, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation. and not for the nation only, but also to gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad.

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

John the Evangelist was the last of the apostles to write his Gospel. He was the only one who was not an eyewitness of Jesus' life and death. He wrote his Gospel in Ephesus, Turkey, around 90 AD. It is the only Gospel that was written after the resurrection. It is the only Gospel that was written in the first century. It is the only Gospel that was written in the first century. It is the only Gospel that was written in the first century.

John 11:25-26

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?"
