The Purpose of This Book

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name.

“THE FATHER’S HOUSE” discussion questions

1. What stood out to you most from this passage/sermon?
2. Here are the three jaw-dropping promises. Which one(s) resonated the most with you and why?
 - a. Jesus our loving bridegroom prepares a place to be with forever
 - b. Only Jesus reveals and reconnects us to our loving Father
 - c. More works of Jesus are promised worldwide for believers who pray in Jesus’ name
3. As you wait for Jesus the bridegroom to return, what do you do to keep your heart longing for his arrival?
4. On a scale of 1-10, rate and then describe your experience relating to God as Father.
5. As we endeavor to do the kingdom-advancing works of Jesus, he promises to answer prayers in His name. (John 14:12-14) Take time to pray for things that only Jesus could do.

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.² He was in the beginning with God.³ All things were made through Him, yet the world did not know Him, and without Him was not any thing made that was made.⁴ In Him was life, and the life was the light of men.⁵ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

⁶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him.⁷ He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

⁸ The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.⁹ He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him.¹⁰ He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him.¹¹ But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.¹² who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

¹³ And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.¹⁴ (John bore witness about him, and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’) ¹⁵ For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.¹⁶ For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.¹⁷ No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.
