The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

8 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.'") 16 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

The Purpose of This Book
"No Jew had ever taken up in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in the book. That there are written in the first three books after Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing in Him we have life in us."

"I look upon all the world as my parish; thus far I mean, that, in whatever part of it I am, I judge it meet, right, and my bounden duty to declare to all that are willing to hear, the glad tidings of salvation. This is the work which I know God has called me to; and sure I am that his blessing attends it.

Great encouragement have I, therefore, to be faithful in fulfilling the work he has given me to do. His servant I am, and, as such, am employed according to the plain direction of his Word."

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not receive it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to give testimony about the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but he testified about the light, that all might believe through him. The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as if from the Father, full of grace and truth. Of him have we heard, and now we have seen with our eyes, and we have touched him, and our hands have touched him, and we have heard his voice, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of the Father's only-begotten Son, full of grace and truth. No one has ever seen God, but he who is at the Father's side, who has made him known.
