The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

9 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’”) 16 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.

The aim and effect of Jesus' prayer for oneness is far greater than we imagine!

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made through him, and without him was made that which was made. In him was life, and the light, the light of men. The light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not receive him. Who saw him, his witness is true, and he testified that the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as if from the Father, full of grace and truth. "John bore witness about him, and cried out, 'This man is of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.' " "For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. " And the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things came into being through Him, and without Him nothing came to be. What was with Him was full of grace and truth. No one has ever seen Him, but He who is next to Him, who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen His glory, glory as if into a tabernacle. And His fullness dwelt with us, and we have seen His glory and truth, because He has glorified Himself without ceasing, and we have seen His glory.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen His glory, glory as if into a tabernacle. And His fullness dwelt with us, and we have seen His glory and truth, because He has glorified Himself without ceasing, and we have seen His glory.

The Purpose of This Book

"No Jew had ever taken upon in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in the book, that these are written in the book, before John. John is the Christ, the Son of God, and thus by following the way have they the way."

The scope of his aim: ALL believers

“I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.” (John 17:20–21)

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things came into being through him, and without him, nothing came to be. What was with him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not receive it. He came to his own people, but they did not receive him. He came to his own people, but they did not receive him. He came to his own people, but they did not receive him. He came to his own people, but they did not receive him.

"The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as if from the Father, full of grace and truth." (John 1:14) "He came to his own people, but they did not receive him." (John 1:11) "The light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not receive it." (John 1:9) "He came to his own people, but they did not receive him." (John 1:11) "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as if from the Father, full of grace and truth." (John 1:14)

The goal of his aim: Oneness

“I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.” (John 17:20-21)

The Purpose of This Book

"Not finished more often again in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in the Bible. That there are some who have not seen, believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in Him forever."

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things came into being through Him, and without Him nothing was made. In Him was life, and the light, the light of men. The light shined in the darkness, and the darkness has not received it.

"The Word" took form, giving light to those who believe in Him, and the world saw glory and glory, full of grace and truth. "God became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen His glory, glory as if His only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth." "God became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen His glory, glory as if His only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth." "For from His fullness we have all received, grace upon grace." "And the law was given through Moses, grace and truth came through Jesus Christ." "No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, He has made Him known."

The Purpose of This Book
"You found out more about Jesus in the general of the disciples, which are not written in the books. That's how you know who the real Jesus is, before you know who the Christ, the Son of God, and that by following you may have life in you."

The degree of his aim: On par with Trinity

"...that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one." (John 17:21-22)

"The 'one light' which, glowing in the world, was shining in the world the way in the world, and the world shone through him, yet the world did not know him. He came on his own, and the people did not receive him. He was all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God. He who was born of the will of the Father's love, the only God, who is the Father's Son, he has made him known.

The Purpose of This Book

"You found out more about signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in the books. That's how you were able to see that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name."
