The Purpose of This Book

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

“PERFECTLY ONE” discussion questions

1. What stood out to you most from this passage/sermon?
2. Jesus concludes this John 17 prayer asking for believers to be ‘perfectly one’. What exactly is He praying for?
3. Jesus’ prayer seeks a deep relationship for believers with God. Looking at verse 21, 23, 24 and 26, is there an expression of our relationship with God that you find particularly encouraging?
4. After studying this scripture, were you inspired to resolve conflict and pursue a deeper experience of love & unity with other believers? Or inspired to intentionally pursue a deeper abiding relationship with God? If so, share how!
5. Jesus declares that the world will better understand Christ’s salvation mission and the Father’s love by seeing our oneness. Share examples of how you’ve seen this in your life or in those around you.

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, yet the world did not know him. 4 Without him was not any thing made that was made. 5 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 6 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

7 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

9 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God. 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’”) 16 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.
