John 18:1-11

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

9 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.'") 16 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.

The Purpose of This Book
"No Jew had ever taken upon
in the presence of the disciples,
which are not written in the book,
that there are written in the book, before John, Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you may have life in eternity."

John 7:30, 8:20

So they were seeking to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come.

...These words he spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple; but no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

So Judas, having procured a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, knowing all that would happen to him, came forward and said to them, "Whom do you seek?" ...

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things came into being through Him, and without Him nothing came into being. What was with Him was full of grace and truth. No one has ever seen Him, for He is with the Father, and He is the Father who has loved Him from eternity to eternity. He is the only-begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, and He has declared Him to the world. No one has ever seen God, but He who is at the Father's side has declared Him to the world. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen His glory, glory as if from the Father, full of grace and truth. (John 1:1-18)
