John 18:38-19:16

The Book of John

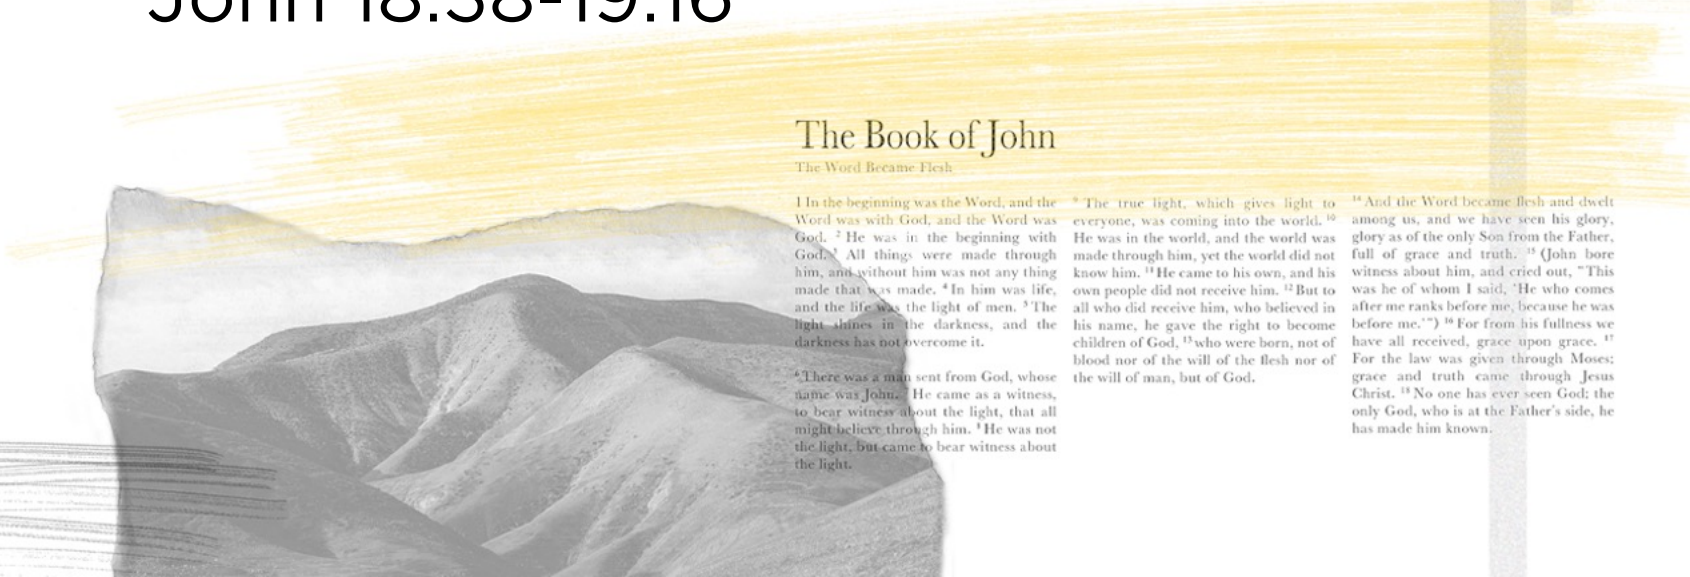

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

9 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’”) 16 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.

[Pilate] went back outside to the Jews and told them, "I find no guilt in him. But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover. So do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" They cried out again, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things came into being through him, and without him nothing came to be. What was with him was full of grace and truth. No one has ever seen him, but he has been with the Father, and he has loved him from eternity to eternity. Jesus came in the flesh and gave sight to many people, but they did not recognize him because he was with them, and they did not believe in him who had come in the flesh to give life to everyone. This is the real Son of God who has come in the flesh and given sight to many people. He did not come to give sight to the whole world, but to give sight to those who believe in him. The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory that was full of grace and truth. John the Baptist testified on his behalf and said, “This man is the one of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks ahead of me, because he was before me.’” From his fullness we have all received grace upon grace. For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.
