John 18:12-27

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

9 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.'") 16 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made through Him, and without Him was not anything made that was made. In Him was life, and the light, the light of man. The light, and a, in the darkness, and the darkness has not received it."

"The true light, which gives life to all men, was coming into the world. He who comes after me, and is higher than I, is coming in, and he who gives life to all men, and the world has not received him, yet the world did not know him, because he came in his own name, and no one received him. He who comes after me, and is higher than I, is coming in, and he who gives life to all men, and the world has not received him, yet the world did not know him, because he came in his own name, and no one received him."

"And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as if from the Father, full of grace and truth. 'Glory here, glory here, and glory here, and glory here, and glory here.' 'This man is of whom I said, 'He who comes after me, and is higher than I, is coming in, and he who gives life to all men, and the world has not received him, yet the world did not know him, because he came in his own name, and no one received him.'"

The Purpose of This Book
"No Jew had ever taken upon
in the presence of the disciples,
which are not written in the book."
"That there are written in the book of the Son of God, and that by following you may have life in himself."

Luke 22:32

"... but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers."

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things came into being through him, and without him, nothing came to be. What was with him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. He who comes after me ranks ahead of me, because he was before me. No one has ever seen God, but the one who is at the Father's side, who has made him known. The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory and full of grace and truth. One who has seen his face and heard his voice and has touched him, his touch is life, and the glory that is from the Father, he has given to the Son. He who has seen him and heard his voice, his touch is life, and the glory that is from the Father, he has given to the Son. He who has seen him and heard his voice, his touch is life, and the glory that is from the Father, he has given to the Son. in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book."
"And these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in eternity."

Luke 22:33-34

Peter said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death." Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow this day, until you deny three times that you know me."

What was with him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not understood it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but he testified to the light. The one who hears his voice and who believes in him will have his sins forgiven. The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of a man from heaven. His name was Jesus, and he is the Son of God. He came to his own people, but they did not receive him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who received him, he gave the right to become children of God. To whom he gave the right to become children of God: to those who believe in the name of the only Son of God, who came in the flesh and who remained with us and who gave us his glory and grace. No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.

The Purpose of This Book
"No Jew had ever before seen in the presence of the disciples,
which are not written in the book,
that these men were with the Lord, before they were with the Christ, the Son of God, and that by following them they have been to glory."

Acts 4:13

When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.
