

The Purpose of This Book

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

that you may

“I HAVE SEEN THE LORD” discussion questions

1. Have you ever entertained any doubts regarding the historicity of Jesus' resurrection? Is it an adequate proof for subsequent generations of seekers who have lived beyond the first century? (Read Acts 1:3, 17:31)
2. (Read Romans 6:4) How practical and relevant would you say that Christ's resurrection is to your daily life? Give some specific examples.
3. Brainstorm as a group, as many practical ramifications of Christ's resurrection as you can, and try to back them up with verses.
4. (Read John 20:17) Why was Jesus' statement here so significant and profound? How is our entire identity transformed by his resurrection? How does that impact your prayer life?
5. (Read Romans 4:23-25, and 10:9) When you're feeling distant from God or even condemned, how can you believe and embrace your justified status more quickly and more fully? How can the empty tomb cleanse our consciences? (see 1 Peter 3:21)

The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.² He was in the beginning with God.³ All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.⁴ In him was life, and the life was the light of men.⁵ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.⁶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him.⁷ He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

⁸ The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.⁹ He was in the world, and the world did not know him.¹⁰ He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him.¹¹ But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.¹² who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

¹³ And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.¹⁴ (John bore witness about him, and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.'")¹⁵ For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.¹⁶ For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.¹⁷ No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.
