The Book of John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

9 The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’”) 16 For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.

The Purpose of This Book

"You found out more about signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in the books. That is how you know that you are Jesus, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in you."

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that has been made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shined in the darkness, and the darkness has not understood it.

"There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify about the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but he testified about the light. The one who hears his voice and believes in him, the Son of God, will not be judged, for he has received the life through him. The one who does not believe in him, the Son of God, will be judged, for he has not believed in the Son of God who came in the flesh. This is the judgment, that the Son of God has come in the flesh, and the world has not known him. Therefore, the Son of God will not see the life of the world, but the wrath of God will be against him. These things were written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in the world. The grace and the peace be with you all who have believed in the Son of God who came in the flesh. Amen."
