Our Goals for the Series

1. To communicate who we are
2. To create some “connection groups” for newer people to experience church life.
3. To create a document that represents our DNA to guide what we hope to reproduce.
4. To offer an opportunity to make a formal commitment to this family of believers.

“There is nothing like the local church when it’s working right. Its beauty is indescribable. Its power is breathtaking. Its potential is unlimited. Whatever the capacity for human suffering, the church has a greater capacity for healing and wholeness. The potential of the local church is almost more than I can grasp! No other organization on earth is like the church. Nothing even comes close.”

Timothy Keller, Center Church

“Believers who live in individualistic cultures such as the United States are blind to the importance of being in deep community and placing themselves under spiritual accountability and discipline. This is why many church-hoppers attend a variety of churches and don’t join or fully enter any of them.

American Christians see church membership as optional. They take a non-biblical feature of American culture (i.e. individualism) and bring it into their Christian life.”

In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

“Jesus certainly loves us individually and justifies us via our personal faith in him. However, the relationship between Christ and his bride is a relationship between the sovereign Lord and a corporate body.

Jesus loves a people as his bride, and consequently, we cannot be joined to him as the one for whom he died, if we have no love for his wife.

Scripture knows nothing of the lone-ranger Christian who is uncommitted to the church.”
